Dear Adrian:

Thank you for your invitation to speak at the San Antonio Bar Foundation banquet on March 26th in San Antonio. Bill Sessions and I have appeared together at his swearing-in ceremony, at the dedication of fallen FBI Agents in the Hall of Honor, and I traveled to Dallas to introduce him to the Ex-Agents. I can think of nothing I would rather do than join you in honoring Bill Sessions at this event, but I'm afraid I cannot make this one.

Please give everyone my warmest regards.

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence

P.S. Bill is doing the great job we all knew he would do, and I am absoluely delighted to have him at the FBI.

Dear Bill:

On the evening of March 26, 1988, the San Antonio Bar Foundation will honor Bill Sessions at a banquet in the Wyndham Hotel here in San Antonio, and I have been requested to contact you to determine whether you can honor us with your presence, and also serve as our speaker.

I realize that it may be impractical for two such distinquished gentlemen to attend a function like this at the same time away from Washington, but if it can be done, the Bar Foundation will very much appreciate your doing so.

Incidentally, yours is the only name suggested, so please come if you can.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Adrian A. Spears
